U.S. COURT OF APPEALS
FOURTH CIRCUIT

Brought Till Anti-Lunching Act

Supporting Facts and Argument.

The appellant argues that the appellee has violated the Emmett Till Anti-Lynching Act by racially profiling the appellant as Arab, & Muslim when the appellant has proven beyond a reasonable doubt and/or a preponderance of the evidence that he is an African-American related to the Captain of the Battle of Gettysburg. He was appointed by Rutherford B. Hayes

Issue 2.Matthew Shepard & James Byrd Hate Crimes Prevention Act*Supporting Facts and Argument.

The appellant is related to Clarence Smith who has his own holiday on May 5th (Cinco de Mayo) in Lumberton, North Carolina by proclamation or around 2002 by the former Lumberton mayor Raymond Pennington. The appellant is also related to William Benjamin who started the first black opera in Washington, D.C.. Wesley Brown attended plaintiff's party.

Issue 3.George Floyd Policing Act*Supporting Facts and Argument.

The appellant argues that he is part of a suspect classification of discrete and insular minorities which have experienced invidious discrimination within the context of American jurisprudence and therefore a strict scrutiny analysis applies to the constitutionality of black letter law although the recently-enacted George Floyd Policing Act is constitutional.

Issue 4.Title VII of Civil Rights Act of 1964*Supporting Facts and Argument

The appellant argues that the appellee has violated Title VII of Civil Rights Act of 1964 by racially profiling the appellant as Arab, & Muslim when the appellant has proven beyond a reasonable doubt and by a preponderance of the evidence that he is an African-American related to the black Captain of the Battle of Gettysburg, i.e. a runaway slave from Fluvier County, Virginia.

4. Relief Requested

Identify the precise action you want the Court of Appeals to take:

The appellant is looking for an injunction in the form of a cease-and-desist order whereby the appellee must be precluded and/or enjoined from racially profiling the appellant as Arab/Muslim when he has proven beyond a reasonable doubt and by a preponderance of the evidence that he is an African-American related to Captain of Battle of Gettysburg.
